

Electricians' Certification Program

Status Report on the Program:

Please be advised that AB 931, the electrician's certification bill, has finished the implementation process. The Division of Apprenticeship Standards (DAS) and the Office of the Director's Legal Unit (OD Legal) finished the review of public comments on AB 931. A copy of the California Division of Apprenticeship Standards' Notice of Proposed Modified Regulations was mailed to members of the public who submitted written or oral statements on the original AB 931 regulations package.

The final version of the regulations was submitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and after their review the regulations became effective on August 29, 2002.

The Division of Apprenticeship Standards has held two initial tests to date. They were as follows:

December 17, 2002
Cerritos, CA

December 19, 2002
Fremont, CA

The on-going exam cycle will begin again on March 1, 2003. Applications are now available on-line at our website (Put link here)

There are currently seven testing sites located throughout the State. The locations are as follows: San Diego, Cerritos, Colton, Van Nuys, Fresno, Fremont and Rancho Cordova.

AB 1087 (Calderon) was signed by the Governor on May 29, 2002. This bill will require electricians, as specified, to obtain certification by January 1, 2005. For complete text of this bill, please go to www.assembly.ca.gov

We appreciate your interest in the electrician's certification program. If you need further information, please call the Electrician's Certification Information Line @ (415) 703-4917.
